This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

My Lord,

THo Flattery be the Compliment of Courtiers, and common Plague that haunts reat Families; Yet your Lordſhip's Soul is far exalted above the Childiſh Inſinuations ſo ordinary a Fare, that I ſhall neither treſpaſs on yourLordſhip's Modeſty nor my own emper in that way: For ſhou'd I preſume to ouble your Lordſhip with Flattery I muſt eier imagine you like it, or not; If the forer, it wou'd tempt me to fancy yourLordſhip eak, a Crime ſo high againſt the Spirit of eaſon, as to exceed not only Repentance, but en Pity and Forgiveneſs; If the latter, wou'd be ill Manners, in all Conſcience, entertain your Lordſhip with your own arſion. Were I to ſpeak of your Lordſhip to y other but your ſelf, I might poſſibly take e liberty to tell my thoughts, having ſomemes had the Honour perſonally to admire, & ten to hear from others, of the pleaſant and ady Eloquence of your Lordſhip's ſpeaking, the refin'd juſtneſs of your thinking, the profound reach of your univerſal Accompliſhments, and the generous Conſtancy of your Lordſhips Kindneſs, to the pooreſt of your Friends: But I have done when I have begg'd your Lordſhip's pardon, for preſuming to Skreen my ſelf (with ſuch a plagiary collection) under the ſhadow of your Lordſhip's Patronage, and leave to liſt my ſelf among the Number of

My Lord,

Your Lordſhip's moſt Humble and moſt Devoted Servants,

To the READER.

I think my self concern'd, to foreſtal my Reader with this one preliminary Acknowledgment, that there's nothing here I can properly call my own, but the Induſtry of Collecting, and Method of diſpoſing the following Sheets in the order in which they are now to appear: For I borrowed, or if you'll have it ſo, Stole moſt of it. I believe many Writers might ſay as much concerning their Works, if they wou'd tell the truth as I have done. I call my ſelf therefore, rather the Publiſher than Author of this Book: I deſigned chiefly to divert and improve my ſelf, if others, as Ignorant as I, happen to be any thing informed, they will as little loſe their Labour in peruſing it, as I have done my Aim in writing it. I have not begun with our own Country, meerly to avoid the Imputation of being Partial and Vain, not becauſe I doubt of our Antiquity beyond many other Countries, and as little do I diſbelieve our Independency upon England: Sir George Mackenzie has ſufficiently cleared the former in his Books againſt the Biſhops of St. Aſaph and Stillingfleet, and the latter is proven in Craig's Manuſcript concerning Homage to the Satisfaction of all unprejudiced Men: I indeed hear that one Mr. Atwood has had the Confidence to write to the contrary: The Book I have not ſeen, but a certain Author of Learning and Honour, (as I am told) has already undertaken to diſpatch his Calumnies by an Expeditious Refutation.

I have traced the Genealogy of the French and Britiſh Kings in the firſt Book, and handled the Princes of the Empire, and thoſe about it in the ſecond, and ended with the Houſe of Auſtria, Kings of Denmark Portugal and Sweden in the third and laſt. I ho indeed no reaſon to alledge in favour of this Method, but what is purely Arbitrary and Accidental: That the Empire ſhou'd in a manner be ſeated in the middle ſeems not wholly to deviat from the Natural Order, which has, as it were, placed Germany in the Centre of Europe. To Diſpute Precedency among Kingdoms, and Countries is not my Buſineſs; for whatever Pretenſions I may have to Tranſlate or Collect, I lay no Claim to the Nice Exactneſs of a Critical Hiſtorian.

The laſt Article of the Title Page I took wholly out of the preſent State of the Univerſe, Printed at London this ſame Year.

I have Induſtriouſly avoided all needleſs Controverſies, both becauſe they generally give Offence, and Truth is often loſt in too hot Diſputes about it, for when Men are over Eager to purſue it, they too frequently out-run the Truth and leave it behind. But they are ſo generally bewitched with the love of Fame and Reputation, that they little conſider this, and are commonly more Charmed with the Fancy of being thought to have Things, than really to have them; not forſeeing that Fame is a thing of infinite Uncertainty and Contingency, depending more upon the Humours of Men, or ſome more ſecret and unaccountable Fate, than upon real Excellency and Merit; for ſome have the luck to be popular and cry'd up for nothing, when others that are truly deſerving can ſcarce keep their Heads above Contempt. What a poor thing is it to beg our Happineſs from the Opinion of others, poſſibly as weak as our ſelves? As for Poſthumous Glory it comes too late to affoord either much Pleaſure or Satisfaction; ſince we'll either deſpiſe it, or not be ſenſible of it. And it ſeems below the Improvements of a ſeparate State to regard the injurious Praiſes of Mortals below.

And

And ſuppoſe, as Mr. Norris moſt excellently ſays, a Deceaſed Spirit cou'd take Delight in the Fame he has left behind him, yet thoſe in whoſe Praiſes he out-lives himſelf, muſt ſhortly Die, and then his Fame will have a Funeral as well as himſelf.

I was ſome few days ago almoſt diſpoſed to hinder this little Book from ſeeing the Light, by reading a grave and witty Paſſage of a very Evangelical Moraliſt, Viz. That Our SAVIOUR dropt his Divine Sentences amongſt thoſe He commonly Converſed with; tho back'd with all the ſoft Eaſineſs of a plain Simplicity, yet without either the Solemnity of Writing, or yet the Formality of ſet Compoſures; and that He never wrote (that we read of) in His whole Life but once, and that not on Pillars of Marble or Plates of Braſs, but on the Duſt, to avoid the Condemning of a Sinner, and that he wou'd not have Men to know what he writ, which ſeems at laſt to caution Chriſtians to conſider for what ends and purpoſes they write. I ſhall not repeat my own Motives and Intentions; but only diſclaim all Expectations of Applauſe, which I truly do as little deſire as deſerve: Beſides the Coats of Arms, &c. of the Princes treated of at the end of each Book: In the Supplement to the Second, I have hinted at the Cities of Venice and Geneva, the Hans Towns and Imperial Cities, the Cantons of Switzerland and Provinces of Holland: And in that to the Third I have inſert the bearings, &c. of the Pope, the Czar of Muſcovy and Emperor of the Turks: I think the Preface and Supplements may ſatisfy the Reader for an Index, and ſo I ſhall bid him kinaly Farewel.

)f the Houſe of France, the Line of Valois and Bourbon.

SINCE it is not my deſign to ſwell this Compend, beyond what I promiſed in the Title; I ſhall only need, in tracing the Family of France, to look back far as Hugh the Great, Duke of France, Burndy and Aquitain Maqueſs of Orleans and Earl Paris, deceaſed 956. In the Year 1031 Henry I. Son to Robert th Saint, and Grand-Child to Hugh Capet, wa Crowned King of France, but his Mother be ing deſirous to Advance his Brother Robert t the Throne, ſtirred up many of the Nobilit againſt him: But in the Battel the Victor fell to the juſter ſide. He died in the Flower of his Age, by a very odd accident, in the 1498: For going out of a door at Amboiſe, to ſee 'em run at Tilts, he ſtruck his Fore-head, with that violence againſt the top of it, that he was preſently ſeiz'd with an Apoplexy, and fell down dead in the place.

Richmond being now aſſiſted by Charles VIII. of France, and ſeveral of the Engliſh Nobility, put to Sea with the Earl of Pembroke, and Landed at Milford Haven: The Country came in apace to join him; with whoſe and the Lord Stanely's Aſſiſtance, who had Married his Mother the Counteſs, King Richard at Boſworth near Leiceſter is attack'd, totally routed and ſlain, Aug. 22, 1483; whoſe Crown found among the ſpoil is put upon the Earl's Head, and he Proclaim'd King by the Army. Thus the Uſurper fell, having by Anne youngeſt Daughter of Richard Earl of Warwick, Edward Prince of Wales of whom before; and a Natural Daughter Catharine Plantagenet.

2. Mary, Married to Eustathius Earl of Boloigne.

King Malcolm was ſlain with his Son Prince dward, by Robert Moubray, Sirnamed Pearcy, 1093. and was removed from Tinmouth where e was firſt buried, to Dunfarling.

Donald Brother to Malcolm III. having twice ſurped the Crown, and given the Weſt and orth Iſles to the King of Norway for his Aſtance, was at length taken captive by Edar Son to Malcolm III. and having his Eyes ut out, ended his days miſerably in Priſon. etwixt Donalds firſt and laſt Uſurpation, *Dun*n Natural ſon to Malcolm III. ſet up for King, ut was ſoon cut off by Donalds contrivance.

It is now time to return to Edgar ſon to Malcolm III. He died at Dundee without Iſſue.

   3. David Earl of Huntington
   4. Adama, Married to Florentius Earl of Holland.
   5. Margaret, Married to Conanus Duke of Bretagne.

Malcolm IV. surnamed the Maid, succeeded 1153. He builded the Abbey of Coupar in Angus, and died a Batchellor at Jedburgh 1165. He was much disturbed by the Treachery of Henry II. of England, tho' Henry had sworn to David Grand-father to the above Malcolm, neither to infest him nor his Posterity. Yet he wrested from Malcolm contrary to his Oath many of the Lands he had in England, and particularly all Northumberland, the Peers of Scotland excepted against the Kings quitting what belonged to the Crown without Consent of Parliament.

William the Lyon, succeeded his Brother Malcolm IV. in 1165, who tho' he recovered Northumberland from the English, yet in 1174 was taken by surprize at Anwick, and carried to Henry II. then making War in France; but was after released on hard enough Conditions

The Race of William now failing, the Crown returns to the Poſterity of his Brother David Earl of Huntington, who Married Maud Daughter to the Earl of Cheſter, and by her had the following Iſſue, Tho it's neither my Buſineſs nor Deſign to purſue the Hiſtory of Affairs, but to touch briefly on the Genealogy of the Royal Family, yet I ſhall in a few Lines hint at the Changes that happen'd from Charles I's. Death, to his Son's Reſtauration. From Jan. 30. 1648, the Monarchy was turned to a Republick, under the Name of the keepers of the Liberty of England, by Authority of the Rump Parliament, till Ap. 1653. Cromwel turn'd 'em out, and placed the Supreme Power in a Council of State, which laſted till July the ſame year. From them he turn'd it into the hands of his Men of Integrity (call'd in contempt of one of 'em) Praiſe God bare Bones Parliament) who held it till Dec: 6. that ſame Year. After

In the mean time the Rumpers ply'd Monck to accept of the Supreme Goverment; but he refus'd to run Foul upon that Rock on which he ſaid Cromwel had ſo lately ſplit. The parliament met, and Monarchy was again reſtored, and the King proclaim'd, May 8. Six Lords and Twelve Commons were ſent to deſire his Majeſtie's return, he landed at Dover, and rode through London on May 29. being his Birth day. Thus the Government was reſtored by one Man, and that without Blood; Monck, Son to Sir Thomas Monck of Potheridge by Frances one of the Daughters and Co-heireſſes of Arthur Plantagenet Viſcount of Liſle (of whom already) he was created by the King Duke of Albemarle, Earl of Torrington, &c.

Since we are now come to our own times, we need only add, That King Charles II. was Crown'd Ap: 23. 1661, and died of an Apoplexy, Feb: 6. 1684, having had no Iſſue by Catharine Daughter of John IV King of Portugal, his only Wife and Relict.

He married firſt Anne Daughter of Sir Edward Hide Earl of Clarendon, &c. Lord Chancellor of England; ſhe died before he came to the Crown: By her he had four Sons,

1. Charles Steuart Duke of Cambridge, born Oct: 22. 1660, died May 5. 1661.

4. Edgar Duke of Cambridge, born Sep. 14. 1667, died June 8. 1671.

And as many Daughters.

1. Mary, born Ap: 30: 1662, married to William Henry Prince of Orange: They were Crown'd King and Queen of England Ap: 11. 1689. They are both dead without Iſſue.
2. Anne, born Feb: 8. 1664. (the preſent Queen of England, Scotland, &c.) married to Prince George of Denmark, by whom ſhe had ſeveral Children, but none of 'em are now alive.
3. Henrietta, born Jan: 13. 1668, died Nov. 15. 1669.

4. Catharine, born Feb: 1670, died Dec: 5. 1671.

By Mary d'Este Daughter of Alphonso d'Este III. Duke of Modena (crown'd as above) he had,

1. Catharine, born Nov: 7. 1674, died Oct: 1675.
2. Isabel, born Aug: 28. 1676, she died soon.
3. Charles Duke of Cambridge, born Nov: 7. 1677, died Dec. 12. following.

As for James, whether truly Son to King James VII. or not, it is not my business to determine; but I hope without offending the Government or any body else, I may safely say, he was born in England, about June 10. 1688. He is now in France.

Its said likewise, Louisa was born in France, 1692. (where she now is bred Popish.)

I shall not speak of the Scotch Pretensions upon England, not being desirous to be an Instrument of Sedition; since we are now happily both subjected to the Jurisdiction of one Sovereign, nor talk of Darien; but the English have had just and Great Pretensions to France, which can not be Renounced without a free Consent of Parliament, no more than the French can part with what they ever have had, by vertue of their Salique Law, little heard of till Philip de Valois. The English have several Plantations in America, such as Virginia superadded in 1584. Bermudaes, 1591. Barbadoes, New-

New-England 1606, Maryland about 1632, Jamaica, 1656, beſides Nova Scotia, one half of St. Chriſtophers, Hudſonsbay, New-York, Carolina, Penſylvania, &c. and ſeveral places of Trade alſo in the Eaſt-Indies; For Tangier in Africa they demoliſh'd as not worth the Charge of keeping; They keep as yet the Title and Arms of France.

The Austrian Family.

THE House of Austria owes its Original to the Earls of Habsburg, whom Schowart derives from the Counts of Mount-Aventine, of the Ancient Per- Family; which was of the greatest E- and Authority of any in Rome, and had it on Mount-Aventine. Leo Anicius Perleo- ount of Mount Aventine Flourished about welfth Century; From him did Lineal- cend Albertus, who with his Brother Ru- vas driven out of Rome by the Arnaldaſt- eretick, 1114. Albertus Travelled into erland, and married the Daughter of Wer- laſt Earl of Habsburg, of the Family of urg, and so became the first Earl of Habſ- of the Perleonian Race; For he begat Ro- the Silent, who was Father of Albert the He married Hedewig Countess of Kyburn, hom he had Rodolph born May 1, 1218, as brought up in the Court of the Empe- redrick II. and was afterwards made Lord Mareshal in the Court of Ottocar King of Bohemia: but returning home to the Government of his own Hereditary Provinces. By the unanimous conſent of the Princes of the Empire, this Rudolph was choſen Emperor, and Crown'd at Aix la Chapelle 1273. By force of Arms he compelled Ottocar King of Bohemia to do him Homage. He freed Germany from Robbers, ſettled Auſtria on his Eldeſt Son Albert, and Schwaben on Rodolph 1282, at a Diet then held at Augsburg; and died, July 15, 1291, having had by his Empreſs, Anne Daughter to the Earl of Hohenberg 15 Children. But of them we ſhall only mention Albert, born July 29, 1242, Sirnamed Monoculus, for he loſt one of his Eyes by Poiſon in his youth. He was the only propagator of the Auſtrian Race. He ſet the Imperial Crown on his own head, having vanquiſhed Adolph of Naſſau the Emperor: He likewiſe War'd ſucceſsfully with the Electors of the Rhine: He married Elizabeth Daughter to the Duke of Carinthia Earl of Tyrol and Goritia, and was kill'd by his Nephew John, May 1, 1308.

From this Albert did Lineally Deſcend Maximilian, he was born at Naples 1459. He was by a Convention of the Eſtates at Calmar Elected King of the three Northern Crowns, in 1397, and a Hereditary Union being then made, it was enacted, that for the Future, they ſhou'd all be under one and the ſame Scepter: Queen Margaret ſtiled the Daniſh Semiramis, died 1412, but King Erick not knowing the Arts of Government, as ſhe had done, fell into the hatred of the People, and was depoſed by them in 1439, for oppoſing, contrary to his Coronation Oath, the free Election of Bogiſlaus Duke of Pomerania to ſucceed him: Chriſtopher his Siſter Sophia's Son by her Husband John Count Palatine of the Rhine and Duke of Bavaria was ſubſtituted in his place. Chriſtopher married Dorothy Daughter of John Marqueſs of Brandenburg, but died without Iſſue; and ſo ended the Ancient Royal Famil

Of the Kings of Sweden.

THe Swedes being weary of the Daniſh Yoak under Chriſtian II. King of Denmark, E-lected Guſtavus Son of Erick of Waſa a Gryphon firſt Governour, then Duke, and at laſt King of Sweden, Gothland and the Vandals, in 1544. He had then ſharp Wars with the Danes, as alſo with the Ruſſe, but he made peace with the firſt. He contended alſo with the City Lubeck in Saxony, and died 1660. His firſt queen was Mary Daughter of Erick Abraham of Laboln, and Catharine Daughter of Guſtavus Governour of Weſt-Gothland was his ſecond. By theſe two Ladies he had three Sons, Erick, John and Charles. Erick the Fourteenth of that Name ſucceeding, was Crown'd 1561. He had Wars with the Danes and Poles, and committed his Brother John to cuſtody, but marrying his own Concubine Catharine (a Woman of baſe Birth) and cauſing her to be Crowned Queen at Stockholm 1568, he ſo fell into Contempt that he was impriſoned the year following with his new Concubine Queen in the very Caſtle of Stockholm, and the Government was given to his Brother John III. ſecond Son of Guſtavus. This John concluded the Peace of Stetin with the Danes and with the City Lubeck, but continued the War with the Czar: He married Catharine Daughter of Sigiſmund King of Poland, by whom he had a Son named Sigiſmund, who was Crown'd King of Poland, Dec. 17, 1587; and after his Father's death which happen'd 1592, was Crown'd King of Sweden, Feb. 19, 1595. But the Swediſh Nobility renouncing their Allegiance about 1699, and depriving him of the Kingly Dignity, ſubſtituted in his lace his Uncle Charles IX. third Son to Guſtavus, and Brother to his Grand-Father King John by the ſame Mother, viz. Mary of Laholm: Who immediatly commenced a War with the Poles for Liſland, which gave riſe to another bloody one with the Danes: As for John, Brother to King Sigiſmund, and Son to John III. (then ſurviving,) by Gumilla Daughter of John Bielk: He was created Duke of Finland and Eaſt-Gothland, and married Mary Elizabeth Daughter to his Uncle Charles IX, but died without Iſſue 1618.

The Crown being ſettled upon this Charles and his Poſterity of both Sexes, and Sigiſmund and his Race excluded for ever. He was Crowned in 1607, having been Governor of the Common-Wealth ſince 1602, he died 1611, he married firſt Anne Mary Daughter of Lewis Elector Palatine; by whom he had a Daughter called Catharine married to John Caſimire Count Palatine of Deux-ponts: By whom ſhe was Great Grand-mother of the preſent King. His ſecond Queen was Chriſtina Daughter of Adolph Duke of Holſtein; by whom he had the following Iſſue,

1. Chriſtina deceaſed in her Infancy,
2. Guſtavus Adolphus born 1594, of whom below.
3. Mary Elizabeth, married to John Duke of Finland.
4. Charles Philip, Duke of Sundermanland deceaſed 1622

Guſtavus ſucceeding his Father, was Crown'd King of Sweden in 1617. He made Peace with the Danes two years before, and with the Muſcovites the ſame year he was Crown'd; but he ſtill continu'd the Wars with the Poles, making Pruſſia Regal the Seat of the War, and reduced all Liffland in 1625. He was ſlain at the Battel of Lutzen in Germany, Nov. 16, 1632, whither he had made an Expedition for ſuppreſſing the Enemies of the Reformed Religion: Leaving by Mary Eleanor, Daughter of John Sigiſmund Elector of Brandenburg, an only Daughter Named Chriſtina, who by her General Charles Guſtavus of Deux ponts her Father's Siſter's Son, under the Regency of her Mother, carried on the War in Germany. The Daniſh War broke out again, but a Peace was concluded with 'em in the year 1645, and alſo with the Emperor and his Confederates. She turn'd Popiſh in 1648, and went through France for Rome, where ſhe died Apr. 9, 1689. Charles Guſtavus, her Father's Nephew by his Siſter Catharine ſucceeding, was Crown'd King of Sweden, June 16, 1654. He made himſelf Maſter of almoſt all Poland and Pruſſia, by the Aſſiſtance of Frederick William the Great Elector of Brandenburg; and oppoſed the Muſcovites and Danes with good ſucceſs. He died Feb. 13, 1660, leavi by Hedewig Eleanor Daughter of Frederick D of Sleſwick, Charles XI. his Son and Succe to the Crown; who after several turns of Peace and War died about the end of the laſt Century, having had by Ulrica Eleanora Princeſs of Denmark.

1. Hedewig Sophia, born June 26, 1681.
2. Charles XII. the preſent King, born June 17, 1682.
3. Ulrick Eleanor born 1688; he had alſo Guſtavus Ulrick, and Charles Guſtavus, both ſhort lived.

As for Sigiſmund III. King of Poland before mentioned, he left two Sons,

1. Uladiſlaus IV. his Succeſſor in that Kingdom, who forced the Muſcovites to reſtore to the Poles what they had taken from 'em till then; but died without Iſſue, May 20, 1648.
2. John Caſimire Jeſuite and Cardinal, but by the Popes Diſpenſation, was Elected and Crowned King the ſame year with his Brother's Death: yet afterwards laid aſide the Crown, reſum'd his Monaſtick Habit, and was the laſt of the Swediſh Race in Poland.

I have read of no pretenſions that the King of Sweden makes, except it be to the Dutchy of Deux ponts, taken from his Family by the Fr. King: Nor has the Swediſh Family ſuffered any diminution that I Know of, but by the Inhabitants of Ingermanland's retiring into Muſcovy with their whole Effects.
